

At the The George and Dragon in West Haddlesey we offer everything you could expect from a traditional vilage pub. Great tradition ales, home cooked quality dishes and it goes without saying, a warm welcome. The George & Dragon has been at the centre of village life in West Haddlesey for well over a hundred years. In more recent years we are proud to have received awards such as Community Pub of the Year and the Trip Advisor certificate of excellence 2013 - 2014

Landlords Paul and Shirley Torkington have owned the pub for over 8 years and offer villagers and visitors alike a warm and welcoming atmosphere, a number of fantastic real ales from local brewers and a great selection of home-cooked pub food. We also have free wi-fi available for all our guests.

Our daily specials are available from Wednesday to Sunday and include dishes such as Steak Port & Stilton Pies , Spicy Chicken Lasagne , hot Indian Platters etc.
